Centralized Employment Notice (CEN) No.02/2019
For recruitment of various posts in Paramedical categories

NOTICE FOR CANDIDATES WHO OPTED FOR MULTIPLE POSTS

1. Some of the candidates have indicated in their applications that they possess multiple educational qualifications and have indicated their options for more than one post.
2. Later RRB had given an opportunity to these candidates for verifying their application and revising their choice of posts and educational qualification. However very few candidates have utilized this opportunity.
3. Since no educational qualification certificates were insisted at the time of applying, based on the information furnished by the candidates in their applications, they were considered for multiple posts and call letters are generated and uploaded on the website. In this regard, candidates are advised to download the call letters carefully by choosing the post for which they are really having the educational qualification.

CAUTION:- The candidature of any candidate is provisional and can be rejected at any stage of the recruitment process for making wrong declaration and submitting false information in the application. Further it is to caution that any misuse of call letter will result in debarment of the candidate.
